CODE OF CONDUCT

While at Project Gold Running Camp, we would like to remind you of a simple code of conduct for you to adhere to throughout the week.

1. Athletes should treat the environments/facilities/people with respect and courtesy at all times
2. Good sportsmanship by all is expected at all times

Throughout the event there is to be NO:

•Fighting with runners/coaches/staff members

•Arguing with other runners/coaches/staff members

•Taunting of other runners/coaches/staff members

•Use of drugs or alcohol

Respectfully listen to and cooperate with all event staff and personnel at all times. Be timely to all transportation, bed checks and meal times. Picking up all personal trash and debris following meals & down time.

Any violators of any part of the above will be sent home immediately

We are very excited for this week.

I commit to abide by all rules and regulations throughout the week and understand that any violation of the above code of conduct can result in my immediate dismissal from Project Gold Running Camp along with communication to my parents/Head Coach.
